BIOGRAPHY

Christal Wagner was raised in Ripon, WI, starting her dance education at Richard's School of the Dance in Oshkosh, WI. She started her undergraduate education at UW-Milwaukee in 2003, where she danced works by Daniel Gwirtzman, Laura Dean, Ron K. Brown and Clare Byrne. In May 2007, she graduated with honors from UWM with her BFA in Dance. Christal joined Your Mother Dances for its premiere in 2006 and has since performed multiple works by Elizabeth Johnson, Heinz Poll, and David Parker. She joined Danceworks Performance Company in the summer of 2007. After joining the Danceworks family she has had the pleasure of teaching for Danceworks Mad Hot Ballroom and Tap and a variety of studio classes. This year she will choreograph works on Milwaukee High School of the Arts, and DPC for their upcoming performance of Lights, DPC... ACTION! This is her third season with the company.
