

Laura Murphy, Dancer

LOOK

BIOGRAPHY

Laura Murphy has recently returned from two years of contemporary dance and choreographic studies in Poland, Germany, Austria, and England. While overseas she performed with the Warszawski Teatr Tanca. Prior to her journeys in Europe, Murphy danced with Wild Space Dance Company and is now their newest Artistic Associate. She teaches Movement Fundamentals and Modern Dance Technique at Lawrence University, and represents Wild Space within the Milwaukee Symphony Orchestra's ACE Project. Improv collaborations with vocalist Amanda Schoofs were seen in Wild Space's In the Space Between, the KE3 Dance Craft Showcase, and continue into the present. Murphy holds a BA in Dance and a BS in Conservation/ Environmental Science from UW-Milwaukee and has given workshops and classes locally for the Wisconsin Dance Council, UW-Milwaukee, the Prairie Du Sac Performing Arts Center, Milwaukee Turner's Gymnastics and Climbing Gym, and internationally as a Guest Artist for Warsaw PL's Free Art Fusion and Laboratorium Improwacji.

Website